

DocTalks 2018

March 15th – UTBM Sevenans

Doceo

DocTalks is:

- A short conference organized by Doceo for simulating an international conference
- An opportunity to gauge how you would perform at a genuine conference and get constructive feedbacks
- A training exercise for PhD students and research interns → no need to have results for participating
- Not a competition

Important dates

- Title and abstract submission deadline: March 14th by 12pm
- Conference date: March 15th, 9am – 5:30pm

Registration

Submit title, abstract and keywords in English at <https://goo.gl/forms/k6fx8RvwVaDjymf63> or use QR code.

Invited keynote speaker

- Dr. Hugh HILL from International Space University
- Talk entitled “A second Carrington Event: What we know and what we need to do”
- 2pm at Lecture hall P108

Raffle and gala dinner

Doing a presentation at DocTalks is also three chances to win nice gifts.

DocTalks 2018 will end with a gala dinner at the restaurant La Citadelle de Belfort, right over the Lion. (registration required)
